

Archeology Day 2008 Save the Date!

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 2009: 10:00 AM-4:00 PM

The Center for American Archeology is pleased to include Archeology Day in our 2009 Calendar of Events. You're invited to join us for a fun-filled day of exploring the fascinating prehistory of the lower Illinois River valley region. Guests will be able to see and participate in a variety of archeology-related activities, including:

Flintknapping Demonstration
Artifact Identification (CAA Staff)
Exhibits by area archeological & historical societies
Kids' Activity Area (hands-on activities)
Tour our 2000-year-old excavation site
Archeological sample processing
Special Artifact Exhibit at the CAA Visitor's Center & Museum

Admission: Admission is free; donations are always welcomed and appreciated

Guests: All ages are welcome – this is a great day trip for families!

Entry Point: Look for the event banners and welcome tent. Street parking is free, and available throughout town.

Directions: Kampsville is located on Route 100 in Calhoun County, Illinois; it takes approximately 90 minutes to reach us from either St. Louis, MO or Springfield, IL. Please contact our office if you would like a map or directions (our location doesn't always show up correctly on internet mapping sites).

Questions? We are happy to assist you. Please contact our office at: (618) 653-4316 [Monday-Friday, 9am-4pm] or by email: caa@caa-archeology.org.
